

THE UNIVERSITY OF
SYDNEY
Preparation
Programs

TaylorsCollege

Sydney International Student Award 2021/2022

Students from Malaysia, start your pathway to the University of Sydney, a world top 40 university (QS World University Rankings 2021)

Enrol in Taylors College in 2021/2022 and upon successful completion, students who hold citizenship of Bangladesh will be eligible for the Sydney International Student Award.

Taylors College students who receive the Sydney International Student Award will be awarded a University contribution of 20 percent of their tuition fee for the duration of their undergraduate course.

Eligible students include: University of Sydney Foundation Program and High Achievers Preparation Program students who have received a conditional offer to study at the University of Sydney commencing from 2021/2022.

Other eligibility criteria includes:

- Be an international student
- Hold citizenship of Malaysia
- Complete and submit a personal statement
- Meet the academic criteria for entry to your principal program
- Receive an offer of admissions from the University of Sydney to a full-time degree to commence from 2021/2022

University of Sydney is ranked #1 in Australia for graduate employability (QS Graduate Employability Rankings 2020)

For more information about the Sydney International Student Award, visit sydney.edu.au/international-student-award