

Confirm your place to secure scholarships worth up to £12,000

You'll be eligible for a tuition fee scholarship worth up to £4,000 when you confirm your place at INTO Newcastle University.

Plus, you could receive up to £8,000 more towards your Newcastle University tuition fees while you study your degree.

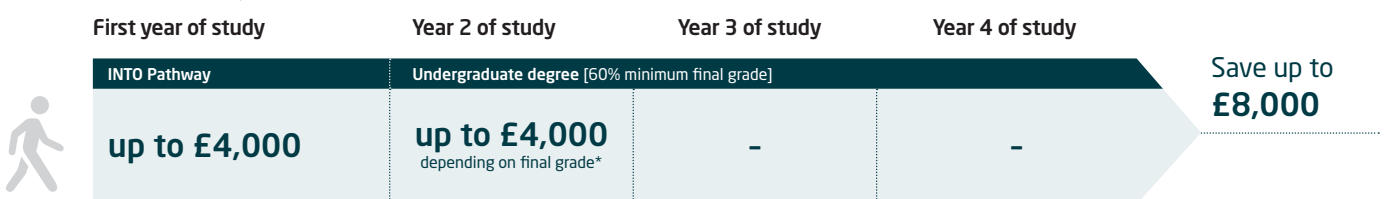

International Foundation

International Year One

Graduate Diploma

Am I eligible?

- Eligibility is based on domicile. If your declared domicile is found to be inaccurate upon progression to the university, you may not be eligible for the Enhanced Progression Scholarship.
- Students from the following countries can apply: Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Singapore and Thailand.
- You must hold an offer for an International Foundation, International Year One or Graduate Diploma programme and be due to progress to Newcastle University during or before September 2023.
- Students who have already confirmed their place at INTO Newcastle University will still be eligible for all relevant progression awards.
- Students must be self-funding. Sponsored students are not eligible.
- Students may be eligible to apply for other scholarship awards during their time at Newcastle University but can only hold one award per academic year.

To confirm your place, please contact your Educational Counsellor.

* Final scholarship amount after continuing to Year 2 of study is subject to your academic performance during your INTO pathway programme. Students who achieve 60% will receive £2,000. Students who achieve 70% will receive £3,000. Students who achieve 80% will receive £4,000.

Accept your offer now!

Contact your local INTO representative today for details on scholarships.