

Progression Scholarships

City, University of London is delighted to award £3000 Progression Scholarships to the top performing students on the International Foundation Programme at INTO City.

The scholarships are split across six of City's academic schools as follows:

- Six available for students progressing to Bayes Business School
- Three available for students progressing to School of Science and Technology
- Two available for students progressing to City Law School
- Two available for students progressing to the School of Policy and Global Affairs
- One available for students progressing to the School of Communication and Creativity
- One available for students progressing to the School of Health and Psychological Sciences

125 years+

of academic excellence focused on Business and the professions

Strong links with more than

5,000 global businesses

Find out more on scholarships at:
www.intostudy.com/city/scholarships