GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Arkansas State University Graduate School offers its students the opportunity to apply for Graduate Assistantships. Over two hundred available positions are filled each year. Graduate Assistantships provide students with opportunities to acquire essential experience in research, teaching, technical or administrative fields while pursuing their degree. Some of the additional benefits include:

- Bimonthly pay
- In-state tuition rate for Master's Degree candidates, provided they are appointed on or before the 11th day of class
- Full tuition waiver for some Doctoral candidates
- Full-time status with only 6 credit hours of coursework for Masters students
- Full-time status with only 9 credit hours of coursework for Doctoral students

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- ESL Students are not allowed to work, but Undergraduate & Graduate students can work on-campus 20 hours a week when school is in session and 28 hours a week when school is not in session
- THERE ARE OPPORTUNITIES! Many students work on campus for academic departments, cafeteria, gym, library, museum, and on-campus dorms.
- During school, international students can also participate in CPT (Curricular Practical Training), which is an internship during your studies on or off campus, paid or unpaid
- After graduation, international students can participate in OPT (Optional Practical Training). This is a one-year period of legal work authorization to work in your field of study off-campus after you graduate.
 - If in a STEM field, the term can be extended for an additional 24 months
 - This work authorization can lead into a H1B sponsorship, if the hiring business chooses to do so.
