

Hello partners

We are happy to inform our Master of Business Administration (MBA) programme is now also available for February, April and September 2024 intake.

Application for January 2024 for this programme is now closed. You may submit applications for February, April or September intake. Application process is the same as before. Please submit applications through the agent portal.

Students who has completed the MBA programme:

- Gain a deep understanding of business fundamentals, including accounting, finance, marketing, and operations
- Develop strategic thinking and problem-solving skills
- Learn how to lead and manage people
- Gain the ability to think critically and creatively
- Build network of contacts in the business world.

3 great reasons to pick this course

1st in the UK for research

The impact of Middlesex Business School research was ranked number 1 in the UK for quality – Research Excellence Framework (REF) 2021

Career progression

We are proud to see our graduates securing roles at prestigious organisations, including the Bank of America, Barclays, Deloitte and Shell

Top UK business leaders university

A recent study conducted by Business Money identified Middlesex University as one of the top 20 UK universities for producing business leaders, including business owners and CEOs