

Free Accommodation Incentive

Join us on campus next spring and unlock your future at INTO Queen's University Belfast with our accelerated programmes

Fast-track to success with best ROI

Commencing in spring 2025, the two-term International Foundation and Pre-Master's Programmes at INTO Queen's University Belfast offer an accelerated pathway to your degree, enabling you to complete your preparation in just six months. This fast-tracked option allows you to save both time and money while achieving your academic ambitions.

As part of your journey, you'll have the opportunity to live on campus alongside other international students, fostering a vibrant and inclusive community. Additionally, benefit from our free accommodation incentive, designed to further enhance the affordability of your study experience.

When you progress to your degree at Queen's University Belfast, a globally recognised Russell Group university, you may also be eligible for a range of scholarships up to £11,500. These scholarships provide additional financial support, making your education at this world-class institution even more accessible.
