Advocacy - Evidence of oral and written clarity, articulacy, persuasiveness, and, if shortlisted, an ability to respond to questioning.

Legal Ethics - Evidence of integrity, reasoning, awareness of civic role and challenges at the Bar.

Character and Interpersonal Skills - Evidence of motivation for a career at the Bar, self-reliance, and teamwork.

Application and Selection Process

The application process for a Scholarship is as follows:

Stage 1 - The Written Application

Applicants will complete an online application form. The form requires candidates to provide personal details, relevant degree/qualification transcripts achieved thus far (note you must upload evidence of individual module marks) a CV and a personal statement explaining how you have met the criteria above. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Please upload documents in Microsoft Word/Adobe PDF only.

The maximum word count of the personal statement is 1500 words although applicants are encouraged to be concise and demonstrate brevity. Your statement should convey how you meet, or have the potential to meet, the criteria stated above by referring to specific examples. Examples can be taken from academic studies, extra-curricular activities and engagements, positions of responsibility, work experience such as mini-pupillages, or indeed voluntary/employed work.

Please note if you would like the panel to consider any particular mitigating circumstances that has impacted academic achievement or if there are any barriers (e.g, monetary, health etc) that you have experienced please include such information clearly in your personal statement.

Successful applicants at Stage 1 will then proceed to Stage 2 (please note that progression to Stage 2 is no guarantee of an award)

Stage 2 - The Interview

Shortlisted applicants will be interviewed by academic members of Northumbria Law School who will form a Scholarship panel. For 2025 the interviews can either take place face to face or remotely using an online video platform such as Microsoft Teams or Zoom. As part of the interview, you will be expected to make a short oral presentation on a topic notice of which will be given at the time of invitation for interview. The interview will be loosely based on what applicants might expect to face when applying to Chambers for a pupillage.
