- The number of scholarships available is limited and scholarships will be offered on a first come, first served basis to suitably qualified students.
- This scholarship campaign will run from 15 April to 16 May 2025.
- Scholarships and subsidies above are combineable.
- The scholarship may not be applicable to students progressing to a quota programme.
- Successful applicant of the Kaplan UK Pathways Outstanding Award (50% scholarship) will not be eligible for the IELTS UKVI scholarship or subsidies, as these will be overridden by the higher-value award.
- The campaign does not apply to students who've already received a scholarship before 15 April 2025.
- The total amount will appear on the student's offer letter as scholarship. The amount will be deducted from the second instalment of tuition fees paid prior to departure, as scholarships are applicable to the final term of a student's studies.
- The number of scholarships are limited, and this campaign may be changed or withdrawn at any time.
- The final decision on awarding scholarships rests with Kaplan International.
