

Additional £400,000 in Master's Scholarships for Henley Business School

We're pleased to announce that, following the recent closure of our previous scholarship scheme, we've now been allocated additional funding to support more students on their postgraduate journey to Henley. This new funding allows us to provide further financial support to high-potential applicants with awards of £5,000 as a tuition fee discount available for international students. If your students are considering postgraduate study, now is a great time to apply.

Key details:

- Up to 80 x £5,000 scholarships for international students
- All master's applications for Henley Business School for 2025 entry will be automatically considered for a scholarship
- Simply submit an application and applicants will be automatically notified if they are successful.
- Awards are issued on a rolling basis until the funding limit is reached

Best wishes,
